

NAVAJO NATION JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURTS' JUSTICE DAYS

April 1, 2015 is the 56th anniversary of the Navajo court system. The Navajo Nation Judicial Branch celebrates the creation of the Navajo court system with Justice Days held at the judicial district courts.

Justice Day gives the public an opportunity to visit the courts and to learn about how our justice system works. Judicial districts will be observing Justice Day with various activities that are open to the public.

The courts of the judicial districts will be holding Justice Day on the following dates and locations:
